

CANCER FULL MOON

The Day of Safeguarding

- 29th July 2026 London 00:58:07

Personality Aspect: Let isolation be the rule and yet the crowd exists.

Soul Aspect: I build a lighted house and therein dwell.

We are continuing to explore new ways to come together as a group at the time of the full moon. We are training ourselves in group awareness as well as to work with energies.

The prepared excerpts are read aloud as part of the full moon creative meditation. After the participatory group reading reflective considerations are shared. A brief summary of these insights and impressions are offered as a synthesis during the meditation.' The sounding of our voices adds quality and enriches the tone of the group field thereby conveying the resonance of the needed creative qualities.' [DINA 11 p 553]

The sounding of The Great Invocation, is used to visualise, radiate and distribute the thought forms generated by the group as an act of service.

As we read and share, as we meditate and become receptive together, we enter a group field far richer and wiser than the sum of our individualities. We move closer to our spiritual confidence and group awareness.

Cancer is the influence that brings us back again and again into incarnation to expose us to mass consciousness; Cancer is the depth of immersion in form, from which we must eventually rise free, and into which we must eventually come freely, in order to release the consciousness of those who are so immersed in form, that they are not even conscious of being imprisoned. (Meditation & Rhythm of the Year p.24)

Cancer [also] has a significant role in connection with the Law of rebirth, being one of the gateways into life on the form level. Djwhal Khul tells us, incarnation is a process and contributes to the ongoing evolution of consciousness of the group humanity, which has an intermediary integrative role to play in planetary life.

Creative Meditation

Alignment

Sitting comfortably close your eyes or lower your gaze and take a few deep breaths. Allowing the breathing to settle in a comfortable rhythm - relax the physical body and feel it soften. Allow the emotions to become calm and serene - letting go of any previous thoughts.

Raising the consciousness through the emotional and mental fields towards the Soul inwardly affirm silently or aloud:

"I build a lighted house and therein dwell."

Affirmation - The Mantrum of the Disciple

Identifying the personal 'I' consciousness with the Soul consciousness - realising they are in reality one - silently affirm the Mantrum of the Disciple.

"I am a point of light within a greater Light.
I am a strand of loving energy Within the stream of Love divine.
I am a point of sacrificial Fire, focused within the fiery Will of God.
And thus I stand.

I am a way by which men may achieve.

I am a source of strength, enabling them to stand.
I am a beam of light, shining upon their way.
And thus I stand.

And standing thus revolve
And tread this way the ways of men,
And know the ways of God.
And thus I/We stand."

Align your thinking to consider the Cancer Soul Message. Mentally salute it becoming attuned to its livingness and its vibration, its quality, nature and potentiality.

I build a lighted house and therein dwell.

Relate it to the present world conditions and happenings at the time, for example, specific areas of conflict or suffering - meetings and conferences of local and international import. This helps to call in the energies to the points of greatest need and makes their aid and practical expression possible.

Visualization

.....Sitting quietly and poised..... endeavour to be a point of focused vision within the centre of the head, with the eye of the mind directed towards the soul

Send a line of light along the Antahkarana into the spiritual realm, where we join with all others who are approaching the spiritual energies in meditation ...

Holding your consciousness high in the head and listening expectantly with all your senses alert to that which will make itself known and grow within you... ..

Imagine you are taking an excursion that takes you through a familiar or unfamiliar sunlit woodland setting:

Imagine you are sitting on the grass beside a quiet pool surrounded by trees, flowers and ferns. It is a quiet tranquil place. You can feel the coolness of the air and the earth beneath you whilst experiencing the sounds and smells of this woodland glade. You notice the stones and pebbles in the pool and the life active within it. The stillness and silence here creates a peaceful tranquillity.

You decide to follow the stream feeding the pool. The pathway you follow leads gently upwards through the dappled woodland setting, and you climb on through sun and shade, noticing as you go the different bird songs and sounds that surround you.

Finally, you reach a sunlit clearing at the top of the hill. At the other side of this there is a wooden cabin. its door is open. You decide to cross the stream and, on reaching the door, you step over the threshold and, as you do so, you are able to set aside the personality as a cloak and to enter as the pure, personal I-consciousness.

You cross the hallway and go into a room of silent stillness. Here you find the High Being, whom you know innately as the Soul, the Teacher, the Master. In the presence of the Soul, the Master of your life, there is a moment of reverent recognition and dedication. Become aware of any impressions.

Dedication

Using the creative imagination send out the idea of the living thought-form created as a blessing into the stream of mental consciousness as you sound the following dedication.

'Into the light we move, beckoned thereto by thee.
Out of the dark we come, driven thereto by the soul of all.
Up from the earth we spring and into the ocean of light we plunge.
Together we come.

Together we move, guided and led by the soul we serve and by thee, the Master we know.
The Master within and the Master without are One.

That One are we. The One is all – my soul, thy soul, the Master and the soul of all."

The Tibetan - DINA II p.127

Precipitation and Invocation:

Close by sounding the Great Invocation. Using the creative imagination to circulate and distribute throughout humanity's etheric network the energies contacted in receptive stage, the thought-forms created in reflective stage, as well as, Light, Love and the Will-to-Good.

The Great Invocation

From the point of Light within the Mind of God
Let light stream forth into human minds.
Let Light descend on Earth.

From the point of Love within the Heart of God
Let love stream forth into human hearts.
May the Coming One return to Earth.

From the centre where the Will of God is known
Let purpose guide the little human wills
The purpose which the Masters know and serve.

From the centre which we call the human race

Let the Plan of Love and Light work out
And may it seal the door where evil dwells.

Let Light and Love and Power restore the Plan on Earth.
