We are tracing the story of Hercules and endeavouring to recognise how he, in his twelve labours, played the part of the aspirant upon the Path of Discipleship. On it, he undertook certain tasks, symbolic in nature, and passed through certain episodes and events which portray for all time the nature of the training and attainments which characterise the person who is nearing liberation.

[Labours of Hercules © Lucis Trust Ltd. p4]

Each of us is an embryo Hercules; and each one of us faces identical labours, each of us has the same goals to achieve and the same circle of the zodiac to encompass. [ibid P9]

As we study the story of Hercules and go with him through his twelve labours, passing around the great zodiac of the heavens, we will approach it from two angles: that of the individual and that of humanity as a whole. [ibid p8]

The consciousness (we aspire to) is the consciousness that we are integral parts of a greater WHOLE, [...] Hercules [...] enacted the life story of every aspirant and demonstrated the part which the unit must play in the eternal enterprise. [ibid p7]

He has to find himself as an individual only to discover that individualism must be sacrificed intelligently to the good of the group. [ibid p9]

Under the rule of matter, we are immersed in fear, individualism, competition, and greed. These have to give place to spiritual confidence, co-operation, group awareness and selflessness. [This is the lesson that Hercules brings to us.] [ibid p9]

The Myth can be taken as the sowing of the seeds of foundational ideas, which give rise to relationships within societies and communities that are birthing the ideals of the New Age. At the time of the full moon, we open to be receptive to these energies that are available, and we strive to anchor them in our daily lives on behalf of humanity, the Hierarchy and the Christ. We open up to them on behalf of humanity.

And in this gathering that is the second service we attempt to align with, at this time of the Full Moon and the day of safeguarding.

As we read and share, we meditate and become receptive, entering a group field far richer and wiser than the sum of our individualities. Gradually over time we move closer to our spiritual confidence and group awareness.

Realising that Hercules shines a light onto the Way and highlights not only the challenges but the opportunities that humanity is collectively facing at present.

The task before the aspirant Humanity, in the airy sign of Libra is to walk the razor-edged path of choices. Under its influence we can learn to make decision rightly and remain poised between the pairs of opposites with which the path of evolution is beset.... The goal is to establish dynamic equilibrium, and to achieve that point of central stillness at which the decision of the scales is made. It [...] provides the point for reorientation, refocusing and redirection of effort for the next moving forward onto a higher plane.

The energy of law and order and this quality of balance make Libra a propitious influence for all that is connected with government, world affairs, judgement, law and relationships, whether of international, group or personal dimensions. The 7th Ray gift of organisation also paves the way - if rightly used - for building the forms through which spirit can manifest. [Meditation & The Rhythm of the Year pp 47-48]

Creative Meditation

Alignment

Sitting comfortably close your eyes or lower your gaze and take a few deep breaths. Allowing the breathing to settle in a comfortable rhythm - relax the physical body and feel it soften. Allow the emotions to become calm and serene - letting go of any previous thoughts. Raising the consciousness through the emotional and mental fields towards the Soul inwardly affirm silently or aloud:

"I am a living loving soul present in the here and now."

Affirmation – Group Fusion

Identifying the personal 'I' consciousness with the Soul consciousness - realising they are in reality one - silently affirm the Mantram of the Disciple Group Fusion

We are one with our group bothers and all that we have is theirs.
May the love, which is my soul pour forth to them.
May the strength, which is in me life and aid them,
May the thoughts which my soul creates reach and encourage them.

Align your thinking to consider the Libra Soul Message. Mentally salute it becoming attuned to its livingness and its vibration, its quality, nature and potentiality.

"I choose the way that leads between two great lines of force."

Relate it to the present world conditions and happenings at the time, for example, specific areas of conflict or suffering - meetings and conferences of local and international import. This helps to call in the energies to the points of greatest need and makes their aid and practical expression possible.

Visualization

.....Sitting quietly and poised..... endeavour to be a point of focused vision within the centre of the head, with the eye of the mind directed towards the soul

Send a line of light along the antahkarana into the spiritual realm, where we join with all others who are approaching the spiritual energies in meditation ...

Holding your consciousness high in the head and listening expectantly with all your senses alert to that which will make itself known and grow within you... ..

In your mind's eye visualise – a man sitting under a crumbling archway. Before and behind him are two rooms.

He is facing a room filled with movement, chaos, and activity with no true purpose.

Behind him is another room filled with life, light, power, stillness and purpose.

He has his back towards the room of stillness, and he knows it not.

The man has been sitting under the arch for ages, trying to work out how to rearrange the room filled with chaos, to allow beauty and harmony to shine forth, but with no success.

He senses something above and behind him as a magnet begins to oscillate in the ~~area~~ room of silence and purpose.

The magnetic oscillations turn him round and he ~~now~~ faces the room of stillness he had not seen before.

Through the centre of the man's heart an energy/ a force pours forth which is both attracts and repels. The resonance of the attractive force pulls the disciple to work with the opportunities. The repulsive force resonates such that the disciple is helped to discard what does not serve the purpose he is searching for.

This energy / this force reduces the chaos until forms emerge that reveal some aspects of beauty not seen before. And from this room a light begins to shine forth, and using his own power and life force the magician/disciple moves forward into the light and away from the crumbling arch.

Dedication

Using the creative imagination send out the idea of the living thought-form created as a blessing into the stream of mental consciousness as you sound the following dedication.

*In the centre of all Love I stand.
From that centre I, the soul, will outward move.
From that centre I, the one who serves, will work.
May the love of the divine Self be shed abroad,
in my heart, through my group, and throughout the world*
The Tibetan - DINA II p.127

Precipitation and Invocation:

Close by sounding the Great Invocation. Using the creative imagination to circulate and distribute throughout humanity's etheric network the energies contacted in receptive stage, the thought-forms created in reflective stage, as well as, Light, Love and the Will-to-Good.

The Great Invocation

From the point of Light within the Mind of God
Let light stream forth into human minds.
Let Light descend on Earth.

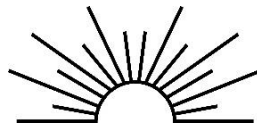

From the point of Love within the Heart of God
Let love stream forth into human hearts.
May the Coming One return to Earth.

From the centre where the Will of God is known
Let purpose guide the little human wills
The purpose which the Masters know and serve.

From the centre which we call the human race
Let the Plan of Love and Light work out
And may it seal the door where evil dwells.

Let Light and Love and Power restore the Plan on Earth.

'A myth is far truer than a history, for a history only gives a story of the shadows, whereas a myth gives a story of the substances that cast the shadows.'
