SCORPIO FULL MOON

Day of safeguarding –15th November London 21:28:17

Personality Aspect: Let Maya flourish and let deception rule.

Soul Aspect: Warrior I am and from the battle I emerge triumphant.

We are tracing the story of Hercules and endeavouring to recognise how he, in his twelve labours, played the part of the aspirant upon the Path of Discipleship. On it, he undertook certain tasks, symbolic in nature, and passed through certain episodes and events which portray for all time the nature of the training and attainments which characterise the person who is nearing liberation.

[Labours of Hercules © Lucis Trust Ltd. p4]

Each of us is an embryo Hercules; and each one of us faces identical labours, each of us has the same goals to achieve and the same circle of the zodiac to encompass.

[ibid P9]

As we study the story of Hercules and go with him through his twelve labours, passing around the great zodiac of the heavens, we will approach it from two angles: that of the individual and that of humanity as a whole.

[ibid p8]

The consciousness (we aspire to) is the consciousness that we are integral parts of a greater WHOLE, [...] Hercules [...] enacted the life story of every aspirant and demonstrated the part which the unit must play in the eternal enterprise.

[ibid p7]

He has to find himself as an individual only to discover that individualism must be sacrificed intelligently to the good of the group.

[ibid p9]

Under the rule of matter, we are immersed in fear, individualism, competition, and greed. These have to give place to spiritual confidence, co-operation, group awareness and selflessness. This is the lesson that Hercules brings to us.

[ibid p9]

The Myth can be taken as the sowing of the seeds of foundational ideas, which give rise to relationships within societies and communities that are birthing the ideals of the New Age. At the time of the full moon, we open to be receptive to these energies that are available, and we strive to anchor them in our daily lives on behalf of humanity, the Hierarchy and the Christ. We open up to them on behalf of humanity.

And in this gathering that is the second service we attempt to align with, at this time of the Full Moon and the day of safeguarding.

As we read and share, as we meditate and become receptive together, we enter a group field far richer and wiser than the sum of our individualities. We move closer to our spiritual confidence and group awareness.

Creative Meditation

The task before the aspirant Humanity, in the 'purifying waters of testing and trial' [Med & Rhythm P40] of Scorpio, is to undertake the evolutionary task of confronting the toxic power of thought that thrives in the caverns of the subconscious. The fiery aspiration of the will-to-good drives the self-centred demons reluctantly into conscious awareness.

Scorpio has been described both as a turning point for the individual and in the life of humanity. In Scorpio, Hercules becomes the triumphant disciple. He demonstrates to himself that he can rise above the thrall of matter and stand, for all time in spiritual being. "We rise by kneeling, we conquer by surrendering, we gain by giving up.Go forth....and conquer." [the Myth p140]

The aim and end of the Scorpio experience is to bring everything out into the light, and thus the same test awaits each disciple and humanity the world disciple. But all who work in Scorpio to overcome the great illusion in their own personal lives contribute to the good of the whole and the progress of the group disciple - Humanity.

Alignment

Sitting comfortably close your eyes or lower your gaze and take a few deep breaths.
Allowing the breathing to settle in a comfortable rhythm - relax the physical body and feel it soften.
Allow the emotions to become calm and serene - letting go of any previous thoughts.
Raising the consciousness through the emotional and mental fields towards the Soul inwardly affirm silently or aloud:

"We are the soul; the soul are we."

Realise that Hercules shines a light onto the Way and highlights not only the challenges but the opportunities that humanity is collectively facing at present as we stand at the Gateway of Scorpio.

Affirmation - The Mantram of Group Fusion

Identifying the personal 'I' consciousness with the Soul consciousness - realising they are in reality one - silently affirm the Mantram of Group Fusion

We are one with our group brothers and sisters and all that we have is theirs.
May the love, which is in our soul pour forth to them.
May the strength, which is in us lift and aid them.
May the thoughts which our soul creates reach and encourage them.

Visualisation:

.....Sitting quietly and poised..... endeavour to be a point of focused vision within the centre of the head, with the eye of the mind directed towards the soul Send a line of light along the antahkarana into the spiritual realm, where we join with all others who are approaching the spiritual energies in meditation ...

Holding your consciousness high in the head and listen expectantly with all your senses alert to that which will make itself known and grow within you...

In your mind's eye, see yourself walking calmly in a meadow surrounded by your favourite flowers. Your clothes feel soft on your skin, they are delicate and silky. You walk in peace, in silence, with your attention inwards. You breathe effortlessly, your physical body feels light, your emotional body is still, your mental body is focused within.

As you walk you soon find yourself at a river and you look at the water for a while mesmerised by its movement, its power, its calmness, its life. You decide you will walk along the riverbank, going upstream.

There is a hill, and you continue walking upwards, following the riverbank. The hill gets somewhat steeper, and you continue to walk effortlessly, following the riverbank, listening to the bubbling sounds of the water, feeling its vital body embracing your own.

After some time, you arrive at the top of the hill, and there you see the source of the river, a small waterfall of sparkling, crystalline water.

As you approached the waterfall, you feel you are at the source of your own vital energy, the source of your own light, the source of your own power. Let the water of the spring fall over you. Feel the energy, the light, the power. Pause and let yourself receive, let yourself be infused.

You are now restored, recharged, revitalised, and you make an act of will to return to the meadow, to return to your life down the hill. Filled with your own vital energy, light and power, you start to descend, following the riverbank. Be aware of how you descend, when you reach the meadow again, observe how you walk.

Visualise yourself leaving the meadow and going back to your daily life, to your house, your family, your office, your city, your service activity, your spiritual practise. . . all the time radiating that vital energy, light and power. Slowly, come back to the awareness of the here and now.

Meditation on a Seed Thought:

Contemplate for a few minutes, the energies needed and available at this particular time, as we align our thinking with the Seed Idea of the Soul in Scorpio.

Mentally salute it becoming attuned to its livingness and its vibration. This helps to call in the energies to the points of greatest need and makes their aid and practical expression possible.

“Warrior I am and from the battle I emerge triumphant.”

Dedication:

Refocusing the consciousness silently sound the Mantram of Unification

The sons of men are one, and I am one with them.
I seek to love, not hate.
I seek to serve and not exact due service;
I seek to heal, not hurt.

Let pain bring due reward of light and love.
Let the soul control the outer form,
And life, and all events,
And bring to light the Love
That underlies the happenings of the time.

Let vision come and insight.
Let the future stand revealed.
Let inner union demonstrate and outer cleavages be gone.
Let love prevail.
Let all men love.

Precipitation and Invocation:

Imagine that the energy of love is pouring through the planetary etheric web of light, stimulating each of the many centres into greater radiance. Using the creative imagination, send out the thought-form created as a blessing....as "Love is the incentive of our aspiration on the path".

Continue to use your creative imagination, to circulate and distribute throughout the planetary etheric network the energies received as well as Light, Love and Will-to-Good, affirming their power to reach us and to anchor their redeeming life on earth.

Close by sounding the Great Invocation.

The Great Invocation:

From the point of Light within the Mind of God
Let light stream forth into human minds.
Let Light descend on Earth.

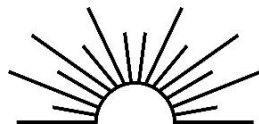

From the point of Love within the Heart of God
Let love stream forth into human hearts.
May the Coming One return to Earth.

From the centre where the Will of God is known
Let purpose guide all little human wills,
The purpose which the Masters know and serve.

From the centre which we call the human race
Let the Plan of Love and Light workout,
And may it seal the door where evil dwells.

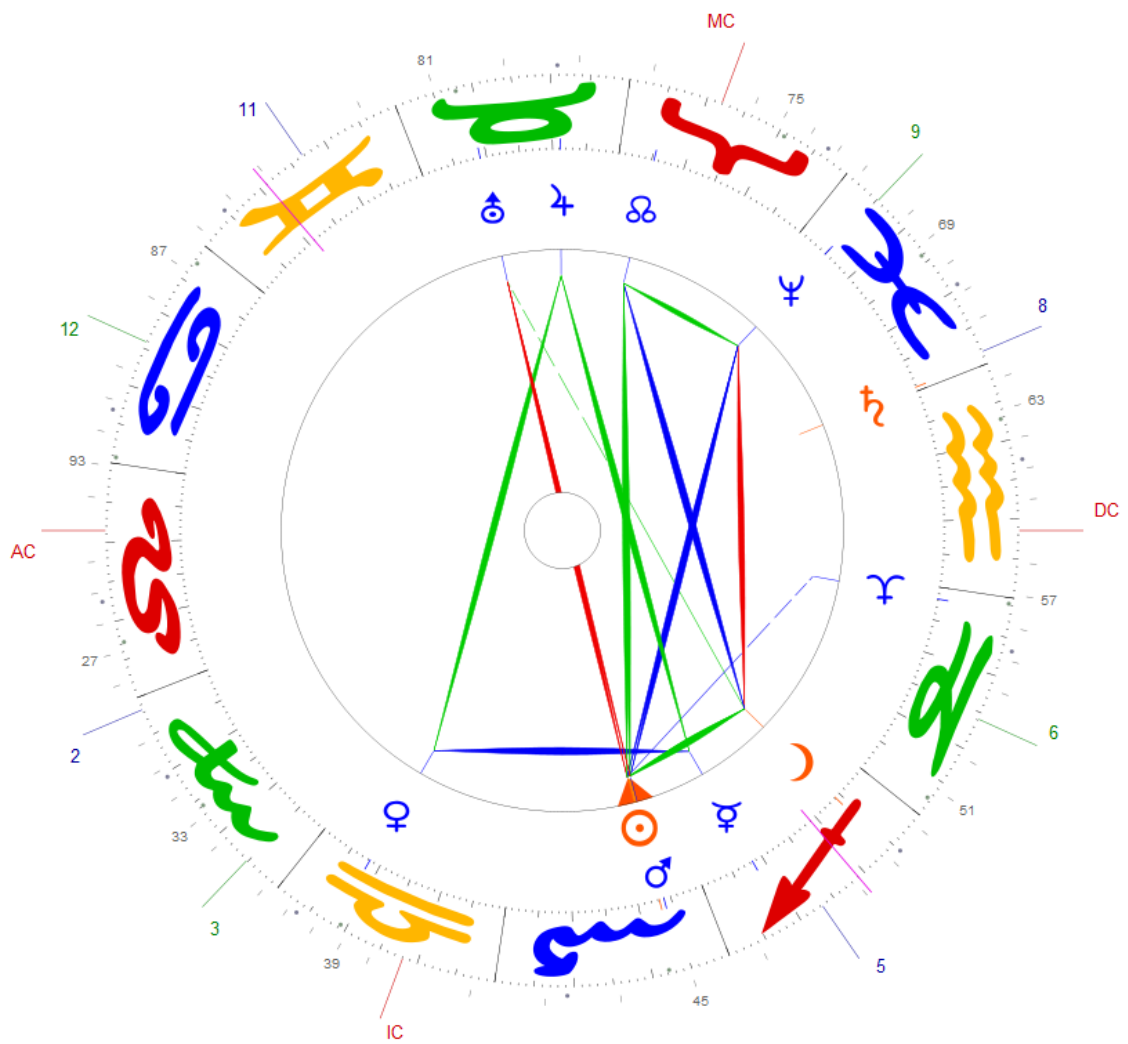

Let Light and Love and Power restore the Plan on Earth.
